Detailed Action

Drawings

The Examiner accepts the drawings filed on August 5, 1999.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-3 and 5-13 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention generally discloses a method of billing for providing access to information over a computer network with the charge billed based on the time a consumer elects to access the information, distinguished primarily by including a third party. The prior arts of record include the teaching of Stefik (US 5,715,403) and Grawrock et al. (US 2004/0093506). Stefik teaches preventing unauthorized applets or like programs from accessing information that they are not expected by the information owner to try to access either at all or within a specified time period. On the other hand, Grawrock teaches the usage rights define how the individual digital work may be used and distributed. The prior arts of record fail to teach, singly or in combination, having the third party return to the consumer a pricetag page that includes a price-per-unit time for access to the information made available for access by the vendor, a maximum duration of access for which the consumer is authorized, and a link to the start session address, which is an address of the third party.

The examiner agrees with the applicants' arguments presented in the remarks of January 12, 2009 and has withdrawn the rejection under 35 USC 101/103. The prior arts of records taken singly or in combination fail to teach or fairly suggest the claimed invention. Therefore, the examiner favors the allowance of claims 1-3 and 5-13.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
